YAHOO! GAMES START THIS WEEKEND---It's time for us to bring our game to gyms across the diocese this Saturday! Coaches have distributed this season's schedule for our seven Eagle teams and are looking forward to putting their players to the test. Here's what we have:

3rd/4th Grade---Girls: SAS White vs. SRS Blue @ St. Rose (9:00 a.m.)

SAS Navy vs. SRS Gold @ St. Rose (1:00 p.m.)

Boys: SAS vs. SRS Blue @ St. Rose (10:00 a.m.)

5th/6th Grade---Girls: SAS vs. SES White @ St. Edward (1:00 p.m.)

Boys: SAS vs. SMS 2 @ St. Matthew (11:15 a.m.)

Varsity---Girls: SAS vs. SRS @ St. Bernard (2:30 p.m.)

Boys: SAS vs. SRS @ St. Bernard (3:45 p.m.)

Go Eagles!

2-4-6-8-WHO DO WE APPRECIATE?---Those Grandpal's who purchased baked goods last Tuesday from our St. Ann Cheer Team! These girls are still working hard to help pay for those snazzy new uniforms and every contribution helps---thanks! (And, boy, didn't those fun balls from our Eagle Spirit Store just bounce out of here? Those generous grandpals supported our Spirit Store, too!)

AND SPEAKING OF GRANDPALS---This art teacher heard plenty 'o praise from our visitors for the artwork in the hallways . . . I was proud to report that our students are quite creative with any idea tossed out there, and, more importantly, they have come to realize that art can be hard work! If you haven't had the chance to peruse the upper and lower school hallways lately, please do so . . . not to mention Neidert Hall where the zany self-portraits done by Grade Two (without writing/color tools) are featured . . . it's nice to see a groups' collective work. Coming soon: newspaper self-portraits by 8th Grade and reverse-color self-portraits created by Grade 5.
